The trial will be held this year at Wolston Farm 1 mile east of town on highway 226. The trial will be open class only and be held on May 19th and 20th. Our Judge will be Mr. Rob Lewis from Corvallis Oregon. The sheep will be crossbred commercial ewes.

There will be no spectators or concessions at this years event but food vendors will be present at the fairgrounds downtown.

Depending on the weather parking and camping may be limited. As we get closer to the event more details on status of parking and options for camping will be made available to competitors.

Thank you for your continued support for the longest continually running sanctioned trial in the west.
